

SDJC in 2012 - A Review

In January, we had a great drive to the Cordiano Winery for wine and oven fired pizza!

In February we joined the Los Angeles club for a Surf and Turf drive and lunch.

In March we braved the stormy weather and met for lunch at Joe's Crab Shack at the Rowing Club.

In April, Grant and Nedra hosted our annual New Members Night at the Lake San Marcos Country Club.

May found us driving to Campo for a ride on a choo choo train and lunch.

Also in May, a bunch of us drove up to the Jaguar Owners Club of Los Angeles Concours d'Elegance.

SDJC in 2012 - A Review continued

Another beautiful drive in June, this time to a lunch at Hernandez' Hideaway.

July was our big event, the 48th Annual San Diego Jaguar Club Concours d'Elegance.

In August, we celebrated our Concours success at a lunch at the home of Craig and Dannie McLaughlin.

In September we had a scenic drive to the Day Family Auto Museum where we joined the Los Angeles club for a tour.

Also in September, members joined the Los Angeles club for a drive to Yosemite.

In October, many of us drove up to Idyllwild for the Inland Empire Concours d'Elegance.

SDJC in 2012 - A Review continued

Also in October, the SDJC had a great turnout for British Car Day at Liberty Station.

October also was the month of the great XK8 Convertible Tech Session. Heaven help us.

In November, we held our Election Luncheon at the beautiful San Diego Yacht Club. Ahoy!

In November, Jaguar San Diego had a Grand Opening of their new facilities. We were there in force!

In December we enjoyed our Holiday Party at the San Diego Marriott Del Mar.

And where would we have been at all these events without Diane McDonald's exciting raffles?!

