By Jane Fitzgerald

...1989 Continues...

- ⊕ The brunch consisting of about 17 SDJC members “partook” of the goodies at the Nieman Bar and Grill (The Old Twin Inns) in Carlsbad on March 19.
- ⊕ The San Diego Automotive Museum Roger Ward Vintage Car Racing weekend, April 7-9, started out with a bang on Friday evening with a reception and cocktail party at the museum. There were 15 SDJC members in attendance for a good time and the races were held on Saturday and Sunday. A great weekend with Chet Manock entering his SS100 and XK120, but no record of how he finished.
- ⊕ Active club members, Russ and Mary Anne Ogle, hoisted anchor for the great northwest.
- ⊕ The Great American Race came through San Diego in July.
- ⊕ Marilyn and Randy Prine made a mad dash to Sweden to attend their son’s wedding. They found the country absolutely beautiful, the people friendly, the food delicious and the driving like being in a slalom.
- ⊕ The gala Christmas Party was held at the North Island Naval Officers Club. The Tuchscher Trophy for most concours points went to Dick Cavicke. Curtis Parker presented the most valuable member award to Bob Fitzgerald. Randy Prine received marble with chrome leading Jaguar bookends. Marilyn Prine was presented a dozen red roses; and a Leaping Jaguar Plaque went to Bob Fitzgerald for his outstanding work as Editor of Jaguar Tracks.
- ⊕ ...and that brings us to a close for 1989.

As my guy would say,
Howzat!

SAN DIEGO JAGUAR CLUB
BOARD MEETING MINUTES
February 17, 1999

Call to Order: The meeting was called to order by President Norman Bild at 6:35 at Cush Jaguar.

Members Present: President Norman Bild, Treasurer Tony Starks, 2nd Vice President Roger Townsend, Historian Randy Prine, Special Everything Marilyn Prine, Secretary John Greenbush, Newsletter Editor Gail Hoffman, and Director John Yoder. Guest Larry Bornstein.

Minutes: January 1999 submitted and accepted.

Treasurers Report: Accepted as submitted. There were 96 newsletters mailed with postage of $114.40, and printing cost of $146.42.

Membership: Roger Townsend submitted 3 names for membership; Steve Browning has an 89 XJ6, R. Lou and Ilene Lepis have an 83 and 86 XJ6, Larry and Sandy Bornstein have an 99 XJS Saloon. It was unanimously agreed to welcome them to the club. Roger reports 132 active memberships, with 29 members not renewed to date.

Dinners: The club dinner at Kearmys turned out to be something less than pleasant. Complaints included late or no service for drinks unacceptable service for dinner, and coffee and desert being charged for and never being delivered. The possibility of a refund was being looked into.

Norm suggested the Club have four or five restaurants that adequately accommodate the Club, and rotate those. Obviously, anyone bringing a new restaurant to the Club's attention would certainly be welcomed. Good service, good food, and room to accommodate the Club are prime considerations.

Events; Glenn Simpson would like to coordinate one outing per month for the next six months, to include Borrego Springs, Julian, Alpine back road, Escondido to Palomar. Glen will submit dates to the newsletter for the weekends.

Upcoming Events: April 9, 10, 11, 1999, Palm Springs Car Classic
May 16, 1999, Ball Bearing Rally, Austin Healey Club
May 30, 1999, Vintage Car Show at Fallbrook.

Old Business: Norm investigated the tax-free status with the post office, and found a minimum of 200 units had to be mailed to be eligible. Unfortunately that is not appropriate for our Club right now.

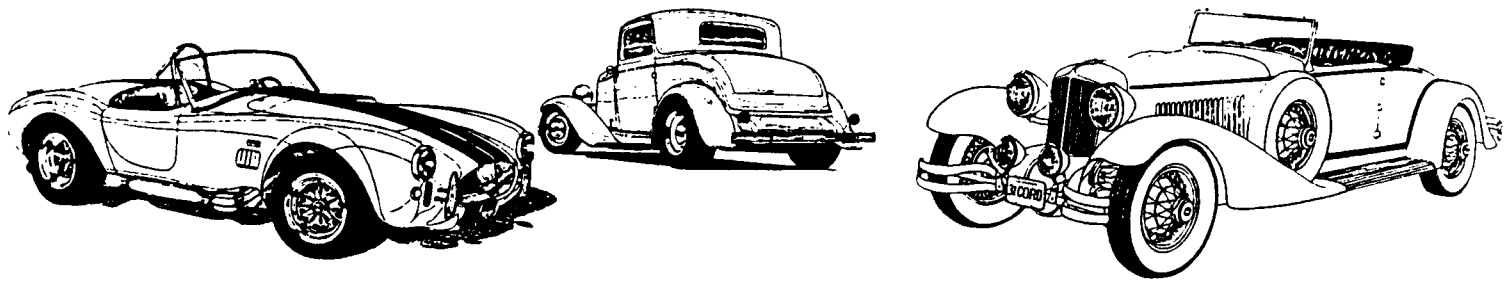

New Business: Norm submitted a letter to Cush Jaguar indicating the Club's interest in assisting at the upcoming car show at the Convention Center. Cush accepted and will advise the Club as to what services we can provide.

We have a letter from David Robson, a Jag owner visiting from Canberra, Australia, this summer who would like to get together with Club members. He will be in the area over the 4th of July, discussed including Mr. Robson in a Club BBQ

The club received a letter from Southwest Regional Chairman, inquiring about our interest in a regional meeting in Las Vegas, for the year 2000. It would include ten Jaguar Clubs in the Southwest Region. One of the considerations was the central location for all ten clubs. We invite comments on any interest in this kind of inter-club gathering.

Adjournment: Meeting adjourned at 7:45 p.m. The next Board Meeting will be March 17, 1999 at Cush Jaguar.

Respectfully submitted, John Greenbush, Secretary
